Effective date: 18.09.2026

Before accessing this website, please read the Terms of Use.

By using the Website, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, please do not use the Website.

These Terms of Use (“Terms”) govern your access to and use of the website operated by Kernul (“we,” “us,” or “our”) at <https://kernul.io> (the “Website”).

1. Purpose of the Website

The Website is a static informational website presenting us and our DevOps-as-a-Service, technical support, and related professional services.

The Website does not provide services directly, create user accounts, process payments, or enable customers to purchase or subscribe to services online.

Information published on the Website is provided for general informational purposes only. It does not constitute a binding offer, professional advice, service-level commitment, or contract.

2. Age Requirement

The Website is intended only for individuals who are at least 18 years old. By accessing or using the Website, you confirm that you are at least 18 years of age.

If you are under 18, you must not access or use the Website, including submitting information through the contact form.

3. Professional Services

Any services provided by Kernul are subject to a separate written agreement entered into outside the Website.

Submitting an inquiry or communicating with us through the Website does not create a customer relationship, contractual obligation, or obligation for us to provide services or respond to the inquiry.

If there is any conflict between these Terms and a separate service agreement signed by Kernul and a customer, the separate service agreement will prevail regarding those services.

4. Contact Form

You may use the contact form to submit an inquiry to us. You agree to provide accurate information and not to submit:

- content that infringes the rights of another person.

The contact form, messages and Website infrastructure may be operated through third-party providers.

Information submitted through the contact form is handled as described in our Privacy Notice.

5. Acceptable Use

You may view and make reasonable personal or internal business use of the Website. You may not reproduce, modify, distribute, publish, or commercially exploit its content without our prior written permission.

Your use of third-party services may be governed by their own terms and policies.
